Hon Wm Lloyd Garrison

Dear Sir

you have been informed through the News Papers of the extraordinary exodus of the Colored People from the South and the terrible Sufferings that caused them to make this movent North they land at our Warf Naked and without means. the Colored and a few White Citizens are doing all they can to feed and clothe them and send them forward. to Free Kansas. they come by hundreds- men. Women. and Children. the Financial Committee need aid to enable us to continue to help this outraged people- We appeal in Gods name to all Generous and liberty loving people for aid. Will you assist us.. will you urge your friends to help us. I send you two of the two Hundred sworn Statements of the Refugees. they are all alike Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience

Oh do not fail now for we feel that this is the last Struggle we will have with the Demon of old Slavery.

Fraternally yours
